WEDNESDAY, FEB 25TH
CLIMATE CHANGE AND NATIVE AMERICAN RIGHTS

12pm in WCC 1019
Onondaga Chief and Faithkeeper Oren Lyons will speak about the critical and urgent challenge that climate change poses to Native American communities and to all people. Chief Lyons will also discuss the treatment of tribes under the U.S. Constitution.

A leading environmental and Native rights activist, Chief Oren Lyons has addressed the U.N. General Assembly and has received the United Nations NGO World Peace Prize and the Earth Day International United Nations Award.

Clover lunch will be served!

Co-sponsored by NALSA and ELS

Event sponsored by the Milbank Student Conference Fund.